

From Canal Boy to President

From a small and rudely-built log-cabin a sturdy boy of four years issued, and looked earnestly across the clearing to the pathway that led through the surrounding forest. His bare feet pressed the soft grass, which spread like a carpet before the door. What are you looking for, Jimmy? asked his mother from within the humble dwelling. Im looking for Thomas, said Jimmy. Its hardly time for him yet. He wont be through work till after sunset. Then I wish the sun would set quick, said Jimmy. That is something we can not hasten, my son. God makes the sun to rise and to set in its due season. This idea was probably too advanced for Jimmys comprehension, for he was but four years of age, and the youngest of a family of four children. His father had died two years before, leaving a young widow, and four children, the eldest but nine, in sore straits. A long and severe winter lay before the little family, and they had but little corn garnered to carry them through till the next harvest. But the young widow was a brave woman and a devoted mother.
