

Window On To Annapurna (CH) (Charnwood Large Print Library Series)

The story of a year in the heart of Nepal, a year of unique and unforgettable experiences. Joy Stephens and her husband spent a year in Baglung, in the heart of Nepal, 150 miles west of Kathmandu and 30 miles from the nearest metalled road. In a year of exciting discoveries Joy helped with rice-planting, maize-sowing and pig-killing, and observed religious festivals in which animal sacrifice still played a part. Joys vivid account is full of insight and laughter, and is deeply moving.
